Privacy

It is not an offence not to quote your tax file number (TFN). However, your assessment will be delayed if you do not quote your TFN. The Australian Taxation Office (ATO) is authorised by the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 and the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act 1999 to ask for information on this tax return. We need this information to help us to administer the taxation laws.

We may give this information to other government agencies authorised by law to receive it – for example, benefit payment agencies such as Centrelink, the Department of Education, Science and Training, and the Department of Family and Community Services; law enforcement agencies such as the Australian Crime Commission; and other agencies such as the Child Support Agency, the Australian Bureau of Statistics and the Reserve Bank of Australia.

I declare that:

- all the information I have given in this tax return, including any attachments, is true and correct
- I have shown all my income – including net capital gains – for tax purposes for 2004–05
- I have completed and attached the supplementary section, schedules and other attachments – as appropriate – that TaxPack 2005 told me to provide
- I have completed item M2 – Medicare levy surcharge
- I have the necessary receipts and/or other records – or expect to obtain the necessary written evidence within a reasonable time of lodging this tax return – to support my claims for deductions and tax offsets
- I understand the ATO has the right to review my tax return and, for a period of up to six years, to issue me with a revised assessment if a review shows any inaccuracies in income or entitlements that change my assessment.
